Questions for Database Designing

1. How is the company divided? Eg: Section/Department/Division, etc.
2. What is the hierarchy of the company?
3. Are the employees working in the company, associated to a single department, or multiple departments.
4. Does every department has a manager/head, etc
5. Does the department has a single manager or multiple.
6. Does every employee has a supervisor.
7. What employee details have to be saved in the database. Eg: Name, address, dob, gender, etc.
8. Have the employees been categorized according to their skills.
9. What project details have to be saved in the database. Eg: Name, start_date, end_date, etc.
10. Does the project has a designated head, or a single head handles multiple projects.
11. Are the projects associated to specific departments.
12. Do the employees work on a single project at a time, or on multiple ones.
13. Is the food cost associated to a project, a department, or every single employee.
14. Is the transportation cost associated to a project, a department, or every single employee.
15. Are the tools associated to specific projects, to departments, or to the employees.
16. Will the attendance be taken projectwise or department wise.
17. How many kind of logins are required in the application.
18. What kind of privileges are to be granted in different logins?
19. Does every employee require a login.
20. What should the daily report include.

Any other suggestions and requests, are welcome.

Dev Ashish
Database Designer